

Problem Set 4

Cristian Rodriguez

- 4a) We have the optimal cost to go function driving the system's state to zero in the standard LQR formulation. In order to have a system follow a prescribed trajectory $x_d(t)$, we must set our cost-to-go function such that its minimum is at the prescribed trajectory, not at zero.